

Compromise for the environment and nature defenders

Declaration of Natour SRL year 2003: We are proud to contribute and promote activities to create a conscience of the environment and the natural resources all over the world through the promotion of the ecological tourist activities and adventure tours in the areas of danger with the purpose of taking care, to control and to preserve the same ones. For the promotions of productive alternative projects with make development the communities for better living at the same time taking care the biosphere , the diversity of landscapes and the people like our beautiful country BOLIVIA..!.