

Potosi Uyuni Salt Flats

FRONTPAGE_NO_TRANSLATION_AVAILABLE

The region south of the Department of Potosi, is constituted in a singular area of interest as much as the scenic point of view like ecological, for whom wish to enjoy of the manifested nature in very particular forms, some of them unique in gender.

The route comprehends the visit places located in different Eco-regions of the Andean area the Uyuni Salt Flats , main attractions where you can appreciate the sea of salt, one of the most extensive in the world. In the area the visit the Thunupa Volcano and towns like Tahua, Coqueza, Jirira and others. To the center of the Uyuni Salt Flats the Incahuasi Island (Isla Pescado) with giant cactuses pretty old ones, and to the south you can find various lagoons of different colours like the Colorada, Verde, Celeste the ones that owe there name to the mineral sediments of the colours. These sites are inside the Eduardo Avaroa National Andean Fauna Park.